Re: Great Lakes Asphalt, Zionsville, Indiana

Dear Mr. Felitti:

This letter is written on behalf of Owens-Illinois, Inc. and Brockway, Inc. in response to your letter dated September 4, 1991 regarding the Great Lakes Asphalt in Zionsville, Indiana. You should note that we received a courtesy copy of your letter from the EnviroChem PRP group and that, although Owens-Illinois and Brockway are listed on the attached service list, we have not received any copies of the letter directly from you. As noted in my February 19, 1991 letter to you, Owens-Illinois is responding on behalf of Brockway because Owens-Illinois acquired Brockway in 1987.

Although Owens-Illinois denies any liability with respect to this site, Owens-Illinois, Inc. on behalf of itself and Brockway is a member of the EnviroChem PRP group which is currently negotiating with U.S. EPA regarding the Great Lakes Asphalt site. With respect to a possible diminution settlement, Owens-Illinois is willing to negotiate with U.S. EPA with regard to its liability, if any. Before we begin any negotiations we will need any and all information that you have regarding Owens-Illinois, Inc.'s or Brockway's involvement at the site.
